01/28/2009 Events

The State Agency for Intellectual Property (AGEPI) launched a new type of service – prediagnosis of intellectual property - a European concept to help small and medium enterprises.

Prediagnosis is carried out in order to estimate the innovative potential of the enterprise and its using level, establish ways to protect the intellectual products, diminishing the risk of counterfeiting of products and reduce production costs.

Source URL: https://www.agepi.gov.md/en/news/prediagnosis-intellectual-property-small-and-medium-enterprises